If the fig jam doesn't dissolve right away when you add it to the pan in Step 5, break up any clumps into smaller pieces with your spoon or a whisk. Eventually, this fruity condiment will melt into a deliciously sweet and sticky sauce.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to middle position (middle and top positions for 4 servings) and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Dice potatoes into ½-inch pieces. Cut broccoli into bite-size pieces. Peel and finely chop garlic. Toss potatoes on a baking sheet with a large drizzle of oil and a pinch of salt and pepper. Roast on middle rack for 5 minutes (you'll add the broccoli then).

2.

Meanwhile, toss broccoli in a medium bowl with a drizzle of oil and a pinch of salt and pepper. Pat pork dry with paper towels and season all over with salt and pepper.

Pat chicken dry with paper towels and season with salt and pepper.

3.

Once potatoes have roasted 5 minutes, remove sheet from oven; carefully push potatoes to one side. Add broccoli to empty side. (For 4 servings, leave potatoes roasting; add broccoli to a second sheet and roast on top rack.) Return to oven and roast until veggies are browned and tender, 15–20 minutes more.

4.

While veggies roast, heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add pork and cook until browned and cooked through, 4–5 minutes per side. Turn off heat; transfer to a plate and set aside. Reserve pan.

Swap in chicken for pork. Cook until cooked through, 5–6 minutes per side.

5.

Return same pan to medium-high heat. Add garlic and cook until fragrant, 30 seconds. Stir in stock concentrate, jam, and ¼ cup water (⅓ cup for 4 servings). Cook, stirring, until thickened and glossy, 3–5 minutes. Turn off heat; stir in 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4) until melted.

6.

Return pork to pan and turn to coat in sauce. Divide pork, potatoes, and broccoli between plates. Top pork with any remaining sauce from pan.

*Pork is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145°.
*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
