In Step 4, you'll shallow-fry your battered tilapia. To test and make sure the oil is hot enough, add a drop of batter on its own. If it sizzles immediately, that's your green light to start cooking. If not, wait about 15 seconds, then try again.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch-thick wedges. Finely chop half the pickle slices (save the rest for serving). Zest and quarter lemon.

2.

Toss potatoes on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil and a pinch of salt. Roast until browned and tender, 20–25 minutes. In a small bowl, combine chopped pickle, lemon zest, sour cream, garlic powder, and 2 TBSP mayonnaise (4 TBSP for 4 servings). In a separate small bowl, combine 2 TBSP mayonnaise and 1 tsp curry powder (4 TBSP mayonnaise and 2 tsp curry powder for 4).

3.

While potatoes roast, in a large bowl, whisk together tempura batter mix, ⅓ cup cold water, and ½ tsp salt until smooth (⅔ cup cold water and 1 tsp salt for 4 servings). (If mixture seems too thick, add more water 1 TBSP at a time until it reaches a pancake-batter-like consistency). Pat tilapia dry with paper towels, then slice in half vertically. Season all over with salt and pepper. Stir tilapia strips into batter until evenly coated.

4.

Heat a ¼-inch layer of oil in a large, heavy-bottomed pan over medium-high heat. Once oil is hot enough that a drop of batter sizzles when added to the pan, working in batches, add coated fish in a single layer. (Shake off excess batter before adding.) Cook until golden brown and cooked through, 1–2 minutes per side. (To check for doneness, cut one strip in half.) Using tongs or a slotted spoon, transfer to a paper-towel-lined plate. Immediately season with salt and pepper.

5.

While fish cooks, place peas and 2 TBSP butter (4 TBSP for 4 servings) in a medium microwave-safe bowl. Microwave until butter has melted and peas are warmed through, 1–2 minutes. Season with salt and pepper.

6.

Divide tilapia, peas, and potatoes between plates. Serve with tartar sauce, curry mayo, lemon wedges, and remaining pickle slices on the side.

*Fish is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145°.
