MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Dice potatoes into ½-inch pieces. Peel garlic. Finely chop one clove (two cloves for 4 servings); keep remaining whole. Trim, peel, and finely dice carrots. Finely dice celery. Halve, peel, and finely dice onions.

2.

Place potatoes and whole garlic in a medium pot (large pot for 4 servings) with enough salted water to cover by 2 inches. Bring to a boil and cook until tender when pierced with a fork, 10–12 minutes. Reserve ½ cup potato cooking liquid (1 cup for 4), then drain and return potatoes and garlic to pot. Keep covered off heat until ready to mash.

3.

While potatoes and garlic cook, heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add carrots and season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until slightly softened, 2–3 minutes. Add celery, onions, and a large drizzle of oil; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until veggies are just tender, 5–7 minutes. Stir in chopped garlic and half the thyme (all for 4 servings). Cook until fragrant, 30 seconds.

4.

Add pork to pan with veggies and season generously with salt and pepper. Cook, breaking up meat into pieces, until browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes. Stir in 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) until melted, then sprinkle with 2 TBSP flour (4 TBSP for 4). Cook, stirring, until lightly browned, 2–3 minutes.

5.

Slowly pour ¾ cup plain water (1½ cups for 4 servings) into pan, stirring, until thoroughly combined. Stir in stock concentrates and season with salt and pepper. Bring to a simmer and cook, stirring, until thickened, 2–3 minutes. (If mixture is too thick, stir in a splash more water.) Meanwhile, mash potatoes and whole garlic with sour cream and 3 TBSP butter (6 TBSP for 4) until creamy, adding splashes of reserved potato cooking liquid (or milk, for extra creaminess) as needed. (We used ⅓ cup cooking liquid; ⅔ cup for 4.) Taste and season generously with salt and pepper.

6.

Spread mashed potatoes on top of pork mixture, leaving a 1-inch gap around edge of pan. Divide between plates.

*Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.
