CHEF'S TIP

Leftover cheese dip is fantastic served with steamed broccoli, drizzled over omelettes, or added to tomato sauce.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to middle position (middle and top positions for 4 servings) and preheat oven to 450 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch-thick wedges. Peel and slice onion into ½-inch-thick rounds. Thinly slice tomato into rounds.

2.

Toss potatoes on one side of a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, Fry Seasoning, salt, and pepper (for 4 servings, spread potatoes out across entire sheet). Roast potatoes on middle rack for 5 minutes, then remove sheet from oven. Carefully toss onion rounds on empty side of sheet with a drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. (For 4, leave potatoes roasting; toss onions on a separate sheet and roast on top rack.) Roast until potatoes and onion are browned and tender, 18–20 minutes more.

3.

While potatoes and onion roast, melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a small pan over medium heat. Add 1 TBSP flour (2 TBSP for 4) and cook, stirring, until light golden brown, 1–2 minutes. Slowly whisk in ½ cup milk (1 cup for 4). Stir in queso blanco and cheddar; cook, stirring frequently, until mixture begins to thicken, 30–60 seconds. Remove pan from heat and cover to keep warm.

4.

Form beef into two ½-inch-thick patties (four patties for 4 servings), each slightly wider than a burger bun; season all over with salt and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add patties and cook to desired doneness, 3–5 minutes per side. (Work in batches if necessary to avoid overcrowding.) Halve and toast buns.

5.

Divide cheese fondue into small bowls. (If cheese fondue has tightened up, warm over the stove, adding splashes of water as needed.) Fill toasted buns with patties, tomato, onion, and mayonnaise, ketchup, or mustard from your pantry if desired. Halve burgers and divide between plates. Serve with potato wedges and cheese fondue for dipping.

Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.*
