CHEF'S TIP

Some like it hot! Add more gochujang or your favorite chili oil to your bowl if you want to turn up the heat.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Slice bacon crosswise into ½-inch pieces. Add bacon to a medium, dry pot in a single layer; heat over medium-high heat. Cook, stirring occasionally, until crispy, 6-10 minutes. Turn off heat. Using a slotted spoon, transfer bacon to a paper-towel-lined plate. Carefully discard all but a thin layer of bacon fat from pot.

2.

While bacon cooks, wash and dry produce. Trim and thinly slice scallions, separating whites from greens. Grate Parmesan (skip if pre-shredded).

3.

Heat pot with bacon fat over medium heat. Add scallion whites and cook until fragrant, 30-60 seconds. Stir in cream sauce base, gochujang, stock concentrate, and 1½ cups water (3 cups for 4 servings), then bring to a boil.

4.

Once water is boiling, add noodles to pot. Cook, stirring occasionally, until tender, 3-4 minutes. Turn off heat; stir in half the Parmesan until melted and combined.

5.

Divide creamy gochujang noodles between bowls. Top with bacon, remaining Parmesan, and scallion greens.

Pork is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145°.*
