How do you know if your pasta water is salty enough? Taste it! (We're serious.) Because your cooking water is the only chance you have to season the pasta itself, it's super important to treat it like you would any other ingredient. The water should taste salty but sippable (like a broth!).

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Wash and dry produce. Halve, peel, and finely chop shallot. Drain corn.

2.

Once water is boiling, add pasta to pot. Cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente, 12–14 minutes. Reserve 1 cup pasta cooking water (1½ cups for 4 servings), then drain.

3.

While pasta cooks, melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add panko; cook, stirring, until golden brown and toasted, 3–4 minutes. Transfer to a small bowl.

4.

Melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in pan used for panko over high heat. Add shallot and corn; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until browned, 4–5 minutes. (Cover pan if corn begins to pop!)

5.

Reduce heat under pan to medium low; stir in cream sauce base, stock concentrates, garlic powder, ½ cup reserved pasta cooking water, and 1 tsp sugar (¾ cup reserved pasta cooking water and 2 tsp sugar for 4 servings). Bring to a simmer and cook, stirring occasionally, until thickened, 1–2 minutes. Stir in drained pasta, adding more splashes of reserved pasta cooking water as needed, until everything is coated in a creamy sauce. Taste and season with salt and pepper.

6.

Divide pasta between bowls; drizzle with pesto and sprinkle with toasted panko.
