While our homemade chili crisp certainly packs a punch, it may not be as spicy as you think! If you're heat-sensitive, add the chili crisp in Step 4 a half-teaspoon at a time, tasting as you go, until it's perfect for your palate (you're the chef, after all!).

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Trim and thinly slice scallions, separating whites from greens. Peel and finely chop garlic.

2.

Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Once water is boiling, add pasta to pot. Cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente, 9–11 minutes. Reserve 1 cup pasta cooking water (2 cups for 4 servings), then drain. (Reserve pot for Step 4.)

Heat a large dry pan over medium-high heat. Add bacon; cook, turning occasionally and adjusting heat if browning too quickly, until crispy, 6–10 minutes. Turn off heat; transfer to a paper-towel-lined plate. Wipe out pan. Once cool enough to handle, roughly chop.

3.

While pasta cooks, in a medium bowl, combine scallion whites, sesame seeds, crispy fried onions, half the chili flakes, and 4 TBSP oil (all the chili flakes and 8 TBSP oil for 4 servings). Heat chili crisp in a large pan over medium heat. Once chili crisp begins to sizzle, cook, stirring frequently, until sesame seeds are golden and fragrant, 2–3 minutes. Turn off heat; stir in garlic. Season with salt and pepper. Carefully transfer to a small heatproof bowl.

Use pan used for bacon here.

Heat pot used for pasta over medium-low heat; whisk in cream sauce base, stock concentrate, cornstarch, cheese, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup reserved pasta cooking water, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup milk, and a big pinch of salt and pepper (1 cup reserved pasta cooking water and 1 cup milk for 4 servings). Bring to a simmer and cook, whisking frequently, until thickened, 2–3 minutes. Stir drained pasta and half the chili crisp into sauce until coated, adding splashes of reserved pasta cooking water as needed. Taste and season with salt and pepper if desired.

5.

Divide mac 'n' cheese between bowls. Top with scallion greens and as much remaining chili crisp as you like.

Top mac 'n' cheese with bacon.

*Pork is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145°.
