Want to nail the perfect pot of rice? Once the water boils, immediately cover the pot with a tight-fitting lid and reduce the heat. Simmer until no water remains (resisting the urge to peek too often!). Finally, let the pot sit off heat while you finish cooking. This allows the moisture to redistribute, giving you tender, fluffy grains.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. In a small pot, combine rice, 1¼ cups water (2¼ cups for 4 servings), and a pinch of salt. Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce to a low simmer. Cook until rice is tender, 15–20 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

2.

While rice cooks, trim and thinly slice scallions, separating whites from greens. Peel and finely chop garlic. In a small bowl, combine 2 TBSP mayonnaise (4 TBSP for 4 servings) and as much Sriracha as you like (start with a little, then taste and add more if desired).

3.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium–high heat. Add pork and season with salt and pepper. Cook, breaking up meat into pieces, until beginning to brown, 3–4 minutes (it'll finish cooking in the next step).

4.

Add scallion whites, garlic, and coleslaw mix to pan with pork. Cook, stirring frequently, until pork is cooked through and veggies are just tender, 2–3 minutes more. Turn off heat. Add sweet soy glaze and soy sauce; stir to coat.

5.

Fluff rice with a fork and divide between bowls. Top with pork mixture and drizzle with Sriracha mayo. Sprinkle with scallion greens and wonton strips.

*Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.
