In Step 2, you'll be making a panade, a mixture of a starch and a liquid—here, we're using torn baguette pieces and milk. This easy trick helps keep your meatballs moist and tender. The more you know!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust racks to middle and top positions; preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch-thick wedges. Halve, peel, and thinly slice onion; finely chop a few slices until you have 2 TBSP (4 TBSP for 4 servings). Core, deseed, and thinly slice green pepper crosswise. Peel and finely chop garlic. Toss potatoes on one side of a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, half the garlic powder, salt, and pepper (spread across entire sheet for 4). Roast on middle rack for 10 minutes (you'll add more to the sheet then).

2.

Meanwhile, halve baguettes; gently tear small pieces of bread from center of baguettes until you have ¼ cup (½ cup for 4 servings). In a medium bowl, soak torn bread pieces with 2 TBSP milk (4 TBSP for 4); stir until broken up and pasty. Remove sausage from casing if necessary; discard casing. Add sausage, chopped onion, remaining garlic powder, ¾ tsp salt (1½ tsp for 4), and pepper to bowl. (Add a pinch of chili flakes from your pantry if you like things spicy!) Form into 6 1½-inch meatballs (12 meatballs for 4).

3.

Once potatoes have roasted 10 minutes, carefully place meatballs on empty side of sheet. Roast until meatballs are golden brown and cooked through and potatoes are browned, 14–16 minutes more. (For 4 servings, leave potatoes roasting; add meatballs to a second sheet and roast on top rack.) Transfer meatballs and potatoes to a plate; cover to keep warm. Carefully wipe off any excess grease from sheet if needed.

4.

While meatballs roast, heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add sliced onion and green pepper; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until browned and tender, 4–6 minutes. Transfer to a medium bowl. Add marinara to bowl with pepper and onion mixture and stir to combine.

5.

In a small bowl, combine 2 TBSP mayonnaise (4 TBSP for 4 servings) and half the garlic; set aside. In a separate small microwave-safe bowl, combine 2 TBSP butter (4 TBSP for 4) and remaining garlic; microwave until melted, 1–2 minutes. Brush cut sides of baguettes with garlic butter; arrange, cut sides up, on baking sheet used for meatballs. Bake on top rack until golden brown, 3–5 minutes.

6.

Carefully fill bottom halves of baguettes with three meatballs each; top with as much saucy pepper and onion mixture as you like. Evenly brush top halves of baguettes with garlic aioli. Close meatball subs. Divide meatball subs and roasted potatoes between plates. If you've got some on hand, serve with ketchup on the side for dipping.

*Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.
