You might be wondering why we have you put your oven-ready tray on a baking sheet in Step 3. Good question! The baking sheet is there to catch anything that bubbles over from your tray while it cooks—plus, it makes moving the tray to and from the oven a breeze!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to middle position (middle and bottom positions for 4 servings) and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Reserve 1 TBSP pesto (2 TBSP for 4) in a small bowl; set aside. Grate Parmesan over a second small bowl (skip this step if pre-shredded).

2.

Place spinach in a large microwave-safe bowl. Microwave until dark green and wilted, 1–2 minutes, then drain any excess liquid. Add cream sauce base, remaining pesto, ¼ cup water, and ¼ tsp salt (½ cup water and ½ tsp salt for 4 servings). Add tortelloni; stir to coat. Transfer to one oven-ready tray (divide between two trays for 4).

3.

Cover tray with tortelloni tightly with foil. Place on one side of a baking sheet. Bake on middle rack (be sure your oven has preheated!) until tortelloni are al dente and cheese melts, 25–30 minutes. (For 4 servings, bake two trays side by side on middle rack.) Remove sheet from oven; carefully remove and discard foil from tray (steam will be released!).

4.

Meanwhile, in a third small bowl, stir together panko, Parmesan, 1 tsp Italian Seasoning (2 tsp for 4 servings), a drizzle of olive oil, salt, and pepper until combined.

5.

Pat chicken dry with paper towels; season all over with remaining Italian Seasoning, salt, and pepper. Place chicken in remaining tray (divide between two remaining trays for 4 servings); rub top sides with reserved pesto. Mound with panko mixture, pressing to adhere (no need to coat undersides). Remove sheet with tortelloni from oven and carefully place tray with chicken on opposite side of sheet. Return to middle rack and bake until panko is golden brown and chicken is cooked through, 15–20 minutes. (For 4, leave tortelloni baking on middle rack; place trays with chicken on a second baking sheet and bake on bottom rack.)

6.

Divide chicken and tortelloni between plates or serve family style directly from trays.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
