In Step 3, we ask you to pound your chicken nice and thin between two large pieces of plastic wrap. (Psst—you could also use a big zip-close bag.) Think of this process as your weeknight stress reliever and, more importantly, your ticket to fast, even cooking! That's a win-win.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to top position and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Thinly slice tomato into rounds; season with salt and pepper. Cut potatoes into ½-inch-thick wedges. Toss potatoes on a baking sheet with a large drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. Roast on top rack until browned and tender, 20–25 minutes. Remove from sheet.

Adjust racks to top and middle positions. While potatoes roast, place bacon on a second baking sheet in a single layer. Roast on middle rack until crispy, 15–20 minutes. (Check often to avoid burning!) Transfer bacon to a paper-towel lined plate.

While potatoes roast, place ¼ cup flour (½ cup for 4 servings) in a shallow dish. In a second shallow dish, crack one egg (two eggs for 4); beat egg with 2 TBSP water. In a third shallow dish, combine panko with half the garlic powder (you'll use the rest in the next step). Season all three dishes generously with salt and pepper.

3.

Pat chicken dry with paper towels. Place between two large pieces of plastic wrap; pound with a mallet or heavy-bottomed pan until about ⅓ inch thick. Season all over with remaining garlic powder, salt, and pepper. Working one piece at a time, press chicken into flour until fully coated. Gently shake off excess, then dip both sides into beaten egg. Let excess egg drip off, then press into seasoned panko until fully coated. (For less mess, use tongs to dip and transfer! Discard any excess flour, egg, and panko after coating.)

4.

Heat a ¼-inch layer of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Once oil is hot enough that a pinch of seasoned panko sizzles when added to the pan, add coated chicken. Cook until golden brown and cooked through, 3–4 minutes per side. Transfer to a paper towel lined plate. Season with salt and pepper.

5.

Halve buns. Place 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a small microwave-safe bowl; microwave until melted, 30 seconds. Brush onto cut sides of buns. Place buns, cut sides up, on sheet used for potatoes. Toast in oven until golden, 3–5 minutes. Fill toasted buns with crispy chicken, tomato, and half the honey Dijon dressing.

Fill buns with bacon along with crispy chicken.

Divide sandwiches and potato wedges between plates. Serve with remaining honey Dijon dressing on the side for dipping. (If you've got some on hand, serve with ketchup on the side for dipping.)

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
