Splash a little cold water on your hands before shaping the meatballs in Step 2. The heat in your hands is what causes a mixture to stick; cooling them down will make the meatball hold to itself rather than to you. And remember to use a light touch—this helps ensure the meatballs won't toughen up when cooked.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Preheat oven to 450 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Peel garlic; finely chop one clove (two cloves for 4 servings). Place remaining cloves in the center of a small piece of foil. Drizzle with olive oil and season with salt and pepper. Cinch into a packet. Halve, peel, and finely chop half the onion (whole onion for 4). Trim green beans if necessary. Dice potatoes into ½-inch pieces.

Trim and halve zucchini lengthwise, then cut into ½-inch-thick half-moons.

In a medium bowl, soak bread with 3 TBSP water (6 TBSP for 4 servings); break up with your hands until pasty. Stir in beef, chopped garlic, 2 TBSP chopped onion (4 TBSP for 4), salt (we used ½ tsp; 1 tsp for 4), and plenty of pepper. Form into 1-inch balls; place on one side of a baking sheet along with garlic foil packet. Toss green beans on empty side with a large drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. (For 4, divide everything between 2 sheets.) Roast until meatballs are cooked through, garlic is softened, and green beans are tender, 10–12 minutes.

Simply cook through this step as instructed, swapping in zucchini for green beans.

3.

While everything roasts, place potatoes in a medium pot with enough salted water to cover by 2 inches. Bring to a boil and cook until tender, 10–12 minutes. Reserve ½ cup potato cooking liquid, then drain and return potatoes to pot. Keep covered off heat until ready to mash.

4.

Meanwhile, melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a large pan over medium heat. Add remaining chopped onion and a pinch of salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until lightly browned, 8–10 minutes. Add 1 TBSP flour (2 TBSP for 4); stir until lightly browned, 1 minute. Slowly stir in ¾ cup water (1½ cups for 4) and stock concentrate. Simmer until thickened, 2–4 minutes. Season with salt and pepper. Reduce heat to low.

5.

Carefully transfer roasted garlic to a cutting board; mash with a fork until smooth. Add garlic to pot with drained potatoes, along with sour cream and 3 TBSP butter (6 TBSP for 4 servings). Mash until smooth and creamy, adding splashes of reserved potato cooking liquid as needed (we used ¼ cup; use milk instead for extra richness!). Season with salt and pepper.

6.

Add meatballs to pan with gravy and stir to coat. (If gravy is too thick, stir in a splash of warm water.) Divide mashed potatoes and green beans between plates. Top potatoes with meatballs and gravy.

*Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.
