In Step 3, you'll make brown butter (aka beurre noisette), warming the butter past its melting point to caramelize the milk solids. The results? A deliciously golden-brown sauce with a deeply nutty, toasty flavor. Be sure to keep a close eye on it and stir frequently while it cooks (it burns fast!).

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Finely chop pecans. Strip rosemary leaves from stems; finely chop leaves until you have ½ TBSP (1 TBSP for 4 servings).

2.

Once water is boiling, gently add pasta to pot and reduce heat to low. Cook, stirring occasionally, until tender and floating to the top, 3–4 minutes. Reserve ½ cup pasta cooking water (1 cup for 4 servings), then drain and set aside.

3.

Melt 3 TBSP butter (5 TBSP for 4 servings) in a large pan over medium-high heat. Cook, carefully swirling butter in pan, until foamy and flecked with amber brown bits, 2–3 minutes. (The butter should smell toasty and nutty!)

4.

Reduce heat to low. Add pecans and rosemary; cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 1 minute. Whisk in honey, half the bouillon (all for 4 servings), and 2 TBSP reserved pasta cooking water (4 TBSP for 4). Cook, stirring, until well combined, 1 minute. Gently stir in drained pasta, adding splashes of remaining reserved pasta cooking water until coated.

5.

Divide pasta between bowls and top with cheese.
