Wondering how to safely handle bacon fat? Once you've transferred the bacon to a plate, let the drippings cool slightly, then carefully pour into a heat-safe container. Store in the fridge for cooking or seal the container and toss it. Just don't pour the fat down the drain—it'll clog your pipes!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to middle position (middle and top positions for 4 servings) and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Dice potatoes into ½-inch pieces. Cut broccoli into bite-size pieces.

2.

Add potatoes to a medium pot with enough salted water to cover by 2 inches. Bring to a boil and cook until tender, 10–12 minutes. Drain and return potatoes to pot. Mash with ¼ cup milk and 1 TBSP butter until smooth and creamy (use ½ cup milk and 2 TBSP butter for 4 servings). Taste and season generously with salt and pepper.

3.

While potatoes cook, in a small bowl, combine panko, half the cheese, and a large drizzle of olive oil; season with salt and pepper. Place 2 tsp dressing (4 tsp for 4 servings) in a separate small bowl (reserve remaining dressing for serving). Pat chicken dry with paper towels and season all over with salt and pepper. Place chicken on one side of a baking sheet (for 4, arrange chicken across entire sheet). Spread each piece of chicken with 1 tsp dressing. Mound tops with panko mixture, pressing to adhere (no need to coat the undersides).

4.

On opposite side of sheet from chicken, toss broccoli with a drizzle of olive oil, salt, and pepper. Roast on middle rack until chicken and broccoli are beginning to brown, about 10 minutes. (For 4 servings, toss broccoli on a second baking sheet; roast broccoli on middle rack and chicken on top rack.) After 10 minutes, carefully push broccoli closer together and sprinkle with remaining cheese. Return to oven and roast until chicken is cooked through and cheese melts, 5–10 minutes more.

5.

Meanwhile, add bacon to a large dry pan in a single layer; heat over medium-high heat. Cook, turning occasionally, until crispy, 6–10 minutes. Transfer to a paper-towel-lined plate. Once cool enough to handle, roughly chop.

6.

Divide chicken, mashed potatoes, and cheesy broccoli between plates in separate sections. Drizzle chicken with reserved dressing and top mashed potatoes and broccoli with bacon.
