Craving restaurant-quality nachos? Pop your tortilla chips in a 350-degree oven for 5 minutes before piling on the toppings—hello, warm, golden crunch!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Dice tomatoes into ½-inch pieces. Finely chop cilantro, including tender stems. Halve, peel, and finely dice onion. Quarter lime. Drain and rinse beans. Drain corn. Thinly slice jalapeño into rounds, removing stems and seeds for less heat.

2.

In a small microwave-safe bowl, combine jalapeño, vinegar, 2 TBSP water, ½ tsp sugar, and a pinch of salt (4 TBSP water and 1 tsp sugar for 8 servings). Microwave until dark green, 1–2 minutes. In a medium bowl, combine tomatoes, cilantro, ¼ cup onion (½ cup for 8), a big squeeze of lime juice, and a pinch of salt.

3.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add beef and remaining onion; cook, breaking up meat into pieces, until browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes. (Carefully drain any excess grease if necessary.) Add beans, corn, and Tex-Mex paste; cook, stirring occasionally, until everything is coated and warmed through, 2–3 minutes more.

4.

Arrange tortilla chips on a large serving platter (or baking sheet). In a second medium microwave-safe bowl, whisk together queso with 1 TBSP water (2 TBSP for 8 servings). Microwave until warmed through, 30 seconds.

5.

Evenly top tortilla chips with Tex-Mex beef and corn; drizzle with queso. Top with pico de gallo, pickled jalapeño (draining first), and sour cream. Serve with any remaining lime wedges on the side.

*Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.
