Hey! Just wanted to let you know that it's possible—and totally natural—for chickpeas to pop a bit while they roast. What can you do to help? Pat the chickpeas extra-dry with paper towels after rinsing. You'll be glad you gave them some TLC. The crispy little treasures are worth the effort.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

Adjust rack to top position and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop garlic. Drain and rinse chickpeas; pat dry with paper towels. Halve, peel, and cut onion into ½-inch-thick wedges; finely chop a wedge or two until you have 2 TBSP (4 TBSP for 4 servings). Zest and quarter lemon (for 4, zest one lemon and quarter both). Trim and halve cucumber lengthwise; cut crosswise into ¼-inch-thick half-moons. Dice tomato.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a small pot over medium heat. Add garlic; cook until fragrant, 1 minute. Stir in rice, stock concentrates, ¾ cup water, ½ tsp Tunisian Spice Blend, and a pinch of salt (for 4 servings, use 1½ cups water and 1 tsp Tunisian Spice Blend). Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce to a low simmer. Cook until rice is tender, 15–18 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

While rice cooks, open package of chicken and drain off any excess liquid or open and drain tofu and press out excess water with paper towels. If using tofu, halve crosswise, then stand upright and halve vertically. Lay flat and cut into ¾-inch cubes. Heat a large drizzle of oil in a large, preferably nonstick, pan over medium-high heat. Add chicken or tofu in a single layer; season with salt and pepper. Cook, undisturbed, until browned on bottom, 3–4 minutes. Continue to cook, stirring occasionally, until chicken is cooked through or tofu is browned, 3–4 minutes more. Turn off heat; transfer to a plate.

While rice cooks, toss chickpeas and onion wedges on a baking sheet with a large drizzle of olive oil, 2 tsp Tunisian Spice Blend (4 tsp for 4 servings; be sure to measure—we sent more), salt, and pepper. Roast on top rack, stirring halfway through, until chickpeas are crispy and onion wedges are tender, 18–20 minutes.

4.

Meanwhile, in a small bowl, combine sour cream, garlic powder, and juice from two lemon wedges (four wedges for 4 servings). Add water 1 tsp at a time until mixture reaches a drizzling consistency. Season with salt to taste.

5.

In a medium bowl, whisk together 2 tsp olive oil, ½ tsp sugar, and juice from remaining lemon. (For 4 servings, use 4 tsp olive oil and 1 tsp sugar.) Stir in chopped onion, cucumber, tomato, and half the cheese (save the rest for serving). Season with salt and pepper to taste.

6.

Fluff rice with a fork; stir in lemon zest and 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings). Divide rice between bowls and top with roasted chickpeas and onion. Drizzle with as much garlic lemon sauce as you like. Add tomato cucumber salad to one side of each bowl and garnish with remaining cheese.

Top roasted chickpeas and onion with chicken or tofu.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
