In Step 1, make sure to slice your onions as thinly as possible. The thinner your slices, the sweeter and more tender your caramelized onions will be. Pro tip: Break out your sharpest knife (it really helps!).

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 12 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 12-person meals, triple the amounts in the 4-serving recipe.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to middle position (middle and top positions for 8 servings) and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Trim green beans if necessary; halve crosswise (to save time, halve a handful of green beans at a time—they don't have to be perfect!). Dice potatoes into ½-inch pieces. Halve, peel, and thinly slice onions.

2.

In a medium bowl, combine green beans, stock concentrate, garlic powder, and half the thyme. Pat chicken dry with paper towels. Season all over with salt and pepper. Transfer chicken to a 9-by-11-inch baking dish (two baking dishes for 8 servings). Arrange seasoned green beans around chicken; sprinkle chicken with remaining thyme. Bake on middle rack until green beans are nearly tender and chicken is cooked through, 25 minutes. (For 8, bake on middle and top racks.)

3.

Meanwhile, add potatoes to a medium pot (large pot for 8 servings) with enough salted water to cover by 2 inches. Bring to a boil and cook until tender, 10–12 minutes. Drain and return to pot. Mash with sour cream, ½ cup milk, and 2 TBSP butter until smooth and creamy (1 cup milk and 4 TBSP butter for 8). Taste and season generously with salt and pepper.

4.

While potatoes cook, heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium heat. Add onions and a pinch of salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until softened and lightly browned, 8–10 minutes. Add ⅓ cup water and 1½ tsp sugar (½ cup water and 2 tsp sugar for 8 servings). Cook, stirring, until caramelized and jammy, 2–3 minutes more. Turn off heat; transfer onions to a small bowl.

5.

Once chicken and green beans have baked 25 minutes, evenly top chicken with caramelized onions, Monterey Jack, and mozzarella. Return to oven and bake until green beans are tender and cheese melts, 5–7 minutes.

6.

Transfer mashed potatoes to a serving bowl; garnish with crispy fried onions. Serve chicken and green bean bake family style directly from baking dish.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
