When prepping your chickpeas (aka garbanzo beans), you'll wanna get them as dry as possible to help them roast to crispy perfection. After draining and rinsing the 'banzos, place them on a layer of paper towels and pat dry while gently rolling them around to remove any excess water.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust racks to top and bottom positions and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Drain and rinse chickpeas; pat dry with paper towels. Peel garlic; place two cloves (four cloves for 4 servings) in the center of a small piece of foil with a drizzle of olive oil. Cinch into a packet. (Reserve remaining garlic for Step 4.) Trim, peel, and cut carrots on a diagonal into ½-inch-thick pieces. Halve, peel, and cut onion into ½-inch-thick wedges.

3.

Roast chickpeas and garlic foil packet on top rack and veggies on bottom rack until chickpeas are crispy, garlic is softened, and veggies are tender, 20–25 minutes. (It's natural for chickpeas to pop a bit while roasting! They may finish first—if so, carefully remove from sheet and continue roasting garlic and veggies.) Transfer roasted garlic to a cutting board.

5.

Melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a medium pot over medium-high heat. Add couscous; cook, stirring, until toasted, 1 minute. Stir in ¾ cup water (1½ cups for 4), stock concentrate, and a big pinch of salt. Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce heat to low. Cook until couscous is tender, 6–8 minutes. Drain any excess liquid if necessary. Keep covered off heat.

Toss chickpeas on a baking sheet with a large drizzle of oil, half the Turkish Spice Blend, salt, and pepper. Place garlic foil packet on same sheet. Toss carrots and onion on a separate sheet with a large drizzle of olive oil, paprika, salt, and pepper.

4.

Meanwhile, zest and quarter lemon (for 4 servings, zest one lemon and quarter both). Finely chop remaining garlic clove (remaining two cloves for 4). Pat chicken dry with paper towels and season all over with remaining Turkish Spice Blend, salt, and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium heat. Add chicken and cook until browned and cooked through, 6–8 minutes per side. In a small bowl, combine sour cream, a squeeze of lemon juice, and as much lemon zest and chopped garlic as you like. Season with salt and pepper. Stir in water 1 tsp at a time until mixture reaches a drizzling consistency.

6.

Thinly slice chicken crosswise. Mash roasted garlic with a fork until smooth; stir into couscous. Taste and season with salt and pepper. Divide couscous, chickpeas, and veggies between bowls in separate sections. Top with chicken. Drizzle with creamy lemon sauce and sprinkle with cheese. Pick cilantro leaves from stems and sprinkle over finished bowls. Serve with remaining lemon wedges on the side.
