GHIA

Ghia is a spirits-free aperitif adapted for modern times. Made only with pure and potent botanicals, Ghia was created to be sipped, savored, and shared from sunset to sunrise.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Bring 5 cups water (9 cups for 4 servings) to a simmer in a medium pot. Wash and dry produce. Dice tomatoes. Grate Parmesan. Zest and quarter lemon (for 4, zest and halve one lemon; quarter remaining). Pick parsley leaves from stems; finely chop leaves. Dice bacon into bite-size pieces.

2.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add bacon and cook, stirring occasionally and adjusting heat if browning too quickly, 5–7 minutes. Reduce heat to medium; add tomatoes and 1 tsp sugar (2 tsp for 4 servings). Season with salt and pepper. Add 1 TBSP water (2 TBSP for 4) and cook until tomatoes are reduced and jammy, 7–10 minutes. (Lower heat and add another splash of water if tomatoes begin to brown too quickly.) Turn off heat; transfer to a small bowl. Wash out pan.

3.

While tomato jam cooks, melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a second large pan over medium heat. Add rice and ½ tsp salt; stir until translucent, 1–2 minutes. Add stock concentrate and 1 cup simmering water (2 cups for 4) to pan with rice mixture; stir until liquid has mostly absorbed. Repeat with remaining warm water from pot—adding ½ cup at a time and stirring until liquid has mostly absorbed—until rice is al dente and mixture is creamy, 25–30 minutes. (Depending on the size of your pan, you may need a little more or a little less water.)

4.

While risotto cooks, pat chicken dry with paper towels and season all over with salt and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in pan used for tomato jam over medium heat. Add chicken and cook until browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes per side. Turn off heat; transfer chicken to a cutting board to rest for at least 5 minutes.

5.

Thinly slice chicken crosswise. Once risotto is done, stir in Parmesan, lemon zest, juice from half the lemon, and 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) until combined. Divide risotto between bowls and top with chicken, tomato-bacon jam, and chopped parsley. Serve with remaining lemon wedges on the side. Pair with a Ghia Blood Orange Spritz. Sip and enjoy!
