Be sure to give your coconut milk a good shake before opening the container and adding to the pot in Step 4. The cream may have risen to the top and solidified a bit, but not to worry—the liquids and solids will quickly come together and turn silky-smooth during cooking!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Fill a large pot halfway with salted water and bring to a boil. (Be careful not to overfill the pot! The water will bubble up once noodles are added.) Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop garlic. Zest and quarter lime.

2.

Once water is boiling, add noodles to pot. Cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente, 5–7 minutes. Reserve ½ cup noodle cooking water (1 cup for 4 servings), then drain and set aside. (You'll finish the noodles in Step 5.)

3.

While noodles cook, pat chicken dry with paper towels. Season with 1 tsp curry powder (2 tsp for 4 servings), salt, and pepper. (You'll use the rest of the curry powder in the next step.) Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add chicken; cook until browned and cooked through, 5–6 minutes per side. Turn off heat; transfer to a cutting board. Wipe out pan.

↔ Swap in steak for chicken; cook to desired doneness, 3–5 minutes per side.

↔ Swap in salmon for chicken. Cook salmon (skin sides down) until skin is crisp, 5–7 minutes, then flip and cook until opaque and cooked through, 1–2 minutes more.

4.

Melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in pan used for chicken over medium-low heat. Add garlic and remaining curry powder; cook, stirring, until fragrant, 30 seconds. Add coconut milk, stock concentrate, and ⅓ cup reserved noodle cooking water (⅔ cup for 4). Season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until sauce is smooth and slightly thickened, 2–3 minutes.

5.

Add drained noodles to pan with sauce; toss until fully coated. (If sauce seems too thick, add more reserved noodle cooking water a splash at a time.) Turn off heat. Add a squeeze of lime juice (big squeeze for 4 servings); stir to combine.

6.

Thinly slice chicken crosswise. Divide coconut curry noodles between bowls. Top with chicken; sprinkle with lime zest. Serve with remaining lime wedges on the side.

↔ Thinly slice steak against the grain.

↔ (Skip slicing salmon!)
