Want to really up your mashed potato game? If you've got some, stir in cream cheese, sour cream, or grated Parmesan, or replace the splashes of potato cooking liquid in step 6 with half-and-half (YOLO). If you have fresh herbs on hand (we especially love chives), chop those up and stir them into your spuds, too.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop garlic. Cut broccoli into bite-size pieces. Dice potatoes into ½-inch pieces. In a medium bowl, soak bread with 2 TBSP milk (4 TBSP for 4 servings); break up with your hands until pasty. Add pork, half the garlic, salt (we used ¾ tsp; 1½ tsp for 4), and pepper. Form into 10 1-inch meatballs (20 meatballs for 4).

↔ Swap in beef for pork.

Toss broccoli on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. Roast until browned and tender, 15–20 minutes. Meanwhile, place potatoes in a medium pot with enough salted water to cover by 2 inches. Bring to a boil and cook until tender, 10–12 minutes. Reserve ½ cup potato cooking liquid, then drain potatoes and return to pot. Keep covered off heat until ready to mash.

3.

While potatoes cook, heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add meatballs and cook, rotating, until browned on all sides, 6–8 minutes (they'll finish cooking in step 5). Turn off heat; transfer to a plate and set aside. Wipe out pan.

4.

Heat another drizzle of oil in same pan over medium heat. Add remaining garlic and cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Stir in vinegar; cook until mostly evaporated, 1–2 minutes. Stir in jam, stock concentrate, 1 TBSP ketchup (2 TBSP for 4 servings), and 2 TBSP water (3 TBSP for 4).

5.

Return meatballs to pan with sauce; cook, stirring, until sauce has thickened and meatballs are coated and cooked through, 2–3 minutes more. Turn off heat and stir in 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) until melted.

6.

Mash potatoes with 3 TBSP butter (6 TBSP for 4 servings), adding splashes of reserved potato cooking liquid as needed, until smooth and creamy (we used ¼ cup; ½ cup for 4). Season with salt and pepper. Divide mashed potatoes, broccoli, and meatballs between plates. Top meatballs with any remaining glaze.

*Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.
