In Step 4, you'll pound your chicken between two pieces of plastic wrap (psst—you can also use a big zip-close bag!). Think of this process as your weeknight stress reliever and, more importantly, your ticket to fast, even cooking and crispy edges! That's a win-win-win.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust racks to middle and top positions and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch-thick wedges. Trim green beans if necessary. Finely chop parsley. In a small bowl, combine 2 TBSP mayonnaise (4 TBSP for 4 servings) and half the garlic powder. Taste and season with salt and pepper; set aside.

↔ Cut broccoli into bite-size pieces.

Toss potato wedges on one side of a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, half the Italian Seasoning, remaining garlic powder, salt, and pepper. Roast on middle rack for 10 minutes. Remove sheet from oven and carefully toss green beans on empty side of sheet with a drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. Roast until potatoes and green beans are browned and tender, 12–15 minutes more.

↔ Swap in broccoli for potatoes; roast until browned and tender, 15–20 minutes.

3.

Meanwhile, place ¾ cup flour (1½ cups for 4 servings) in a shallow dish. In a second shallow dish, crack one egg (two eggs for 4); whisk in 2 TBSP water (4 TBSP for 4). In a third shallow dish, combine panko and remaining Italian Seasoning; season with salt (we used 1 tsp; 2 tsp for 4) and pepper.

4.

Pat chicken dry with paper towels. Place between two large pieces of plastic wrap; pound with a mallet or rolling pin until about ½ inch thick. (Skip if your chicken is already ½ inch thick.) Season all over with salt and pepper. Working one piece at a time, press both sides of chicken into flour until fully coated. Shake off excess flour, then dip into egg mixture. Let excess egg drip off, then press into seasoned panko until fully coated. (Discard any excess flour and egg after coating.)

5.

Heat a ⅓-inch layer of oil in a large, heavy-bottomed pan over medium-high heat. Once oil is hot enough that a pinch of panko sizzles when added to the pan, add coated chicken. Cook until golden brown and cooked through, 3–5 minutes per side. Transfer to a second baking sheet. (For 4 servings, you may need to cook chicken in batches.)

6.

Evenly spread tops of chicken with marinara and sprinkle with cheese. Bake on top rack until cheese is melted and begins to brown, 3–4 minutes. (Watch chicken carefully to avoid burning!) Divide chicken, potatoes, and green beans between plates in separate sections. Garnish chicken with chopped parsley. Serve with garlic aioli on the side for dipping.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.

*Wash hands and surfaces after handling raw eggs. Consuming raw or undercooked eggs may increase your risk of foodborne illness.
