You may notice that we pretty much always ask you to reserve a bit of pasta cooking water before draining your pasta. Wondering what makes this cloudy water so darn special? It's salty and starchy, and those magical starches help emulsify your sauce (aka, turn it silky smooth). Basically, it makes good pasta great, and we'd never leave you with a bowlful of just good.

MORE IS MORE

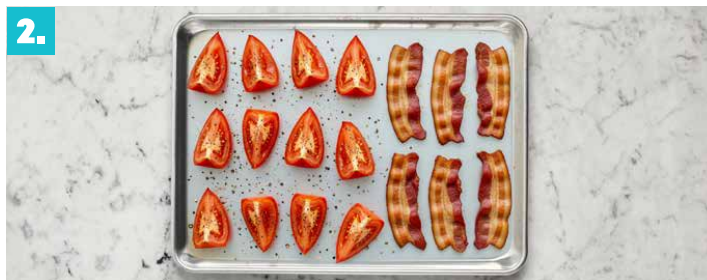

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to middle position (middle and top positions for 4 servings) and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Wash and dry produce. Halve tomatoes lengthwise; cut each half lengthwise into three wedges. Peel and finely chop garlic. Grate Parmesan over a small bowl (skip this step if pre-shredded).

2.

Toss tomatoes on one side of a baking sheet with a large drizzle of olive oil, salt, and pepper. Arrange bacon in a single layer on empty side of same sheet. Roast on middle rack until tomatoes are browned and tender and bacon is crispy, 15–20 minutes. (For 4 servings, spread tomatoes out across entire baking sheet and arrange bacon on a separate sheet; roast tomatoes on middle rack and bacon on top rack.)

3.

Once water is boiling, add pasta to pot. Cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente, 9–11 minutes. Reserve ½ cup pasta cooking water (1 cup for 4 servings), then drain.

4.

While pasta cooks, pat chicken dry with paper towels; season all over with half the Italian Seasoning (you'll use the rest in the next step), salt, and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium–high heat. Add chicken and cook until browned and cooked through, 5–6 minutes per side. Turn off heat; transfer to a cutting board to rest. Wipe out pan.

5.

Heat a drizzle of oil in pan used for chicken over medium heat. Add garlic and cook, stirring, until fragrant, 30 seconds. Add cream sauce base, half the Parmesan, and remaining Italian Seasoning; stir until well combined. Reduce heat to low and stir in drained pasta, roasted tomatoes, and pesto. Add splashes of reserved pasta cooking water if needed until pasta is coated in a creamy sauce. Taste and season with salt and pepper.

6.

Thinly slice chicken crosswise. Roughly chop bacon. Divide pasta between bowls and top with chicken, bacon, and remaining Parmesan.
