Wondering how to safely handle the bacon fat? Once you've transferred the bacon to a plate, remove the pan from the heat and let the drippings cool slightly. Then, carefully pour it into a heat-safe container. Store in the fridge for cooking, or seal the container and toss it. Just don't pour it down the drain—it'll clog your pipes!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop garlic. Cut potatoes into ½-inch-thick wedges. Grate Parmesan. Place half the chopped garlic, 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings), and ¼ tsp Italian Seasoning (½ tsp for 4; you'll use more later) in a small microwave-safe bowl; microwave for 30 seconds, then set garlic butter mixture aside. Toss potatoes on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. Roast until browned and crispy, 20–25 minutes.

2.

Meanwhile, heat a medium dry pan over medium-high heat. Add bacon in a single layer and cook, turning occasionally, until crispy, 6–10 minutes. (Adjust heat if bacon begins to brown too quickly.) Turn off heat; transfer bacon to a paper-towel-lined plate. Carefully discard all but a thin layer of bacon fat from pan.

3.

In a medium bowl, combine chicken, 1½ tsp Italian Seasoning, ½ tsp garlic powder, ½ tsp salt, and pepper (1 TBSP Italian Seasoning, 1 tsp garlic powder, and 1 tsp salt for 4 servings; you'll use more Italian Seasoning and garlic powder later). Form chicken mixture into two ½-inch-thick patties (four patties for 4), each slightly wider than a burger bun.

Swap in beef or pork for chicken.

Heat pan with reserved bacon fat over medium-high heat (if pan seems dry, add a drizzle of oil). Add patties and cook until cooked through, 4–6 minutes per side. Top with mozzarella; cover with lid and cook until cheese is melted, 1–2 minutes more.

5.

Halve and toast buns. Brush garlic butter mixture onto top buns. Place 2 TBSP mayonnaise (4 TBSP for 4 servings) in bowl used for garlic butter. Add ¼ tsp Italian Seasoning, ¼ tsp garlic powder, a pinch of salt and pepper, and remaining chopped garlic to taste (½ tsp Italian Seasoning and ½ tsp garlic powder for 4; be sure to measure—we sent more). Add half the Parmesan and 2 tsp water (4 tsp for 4); stir to combine.

6.

Divide buns between plates. Place bacon on bottom buns; top with patties. Spread marinara over patties, then top with garlic-buttered top buns. Serve potato wedges on the side, then top with garlic Parm mayo and sprinkle with remaining Parmesan.
