CHEF'S TIP

When mashing your potatoes in Step 2, try not to “overwork” them. Potatoes are super starchy and tend to become gummy and clumpy when that starch is mixed around too much. Use a gentle touch and you too can make super-smooth, fluffy mashed potatoes.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch pieces.

2.

Add potatoes to a medium pot with enough salted water to cover by 2 inches. Bring to a boil and cook until tender, 10–12 minutes. Drain and return potatoes to pot; mash with garlic powder, ¼ cup milk, and 1 TBSP butter until smooth and creamy (use ½ cup milk and 2 TBSP butter for 4 servings). Taste and season generously with salt and pepper.

3.

While potatoes cook, place ¼ cup flour (½ cup for 4 servings) in a shallow dish. Crack one egg (two eggs for 4) into a separate shallow dish; beat with 2 TBSP water (4 TBSP for 4). Place panko in a third shallow dish. Season all three dishes with salt and pepper. Pat pork dry with paper towels. Place between two large pieces of plastic wrap; pound with a mallet or heavy-bottomed pan until pork is about ½ inch thick. Season all over with salt and pepper. Working one piece at a time, press pork into seasoned flour until fully coated. Gently shake off excess, then dip both sides into beaten egg. Let excess egg drip off, then press into seasoned panko until fully coated. (For less mess, use tongs to dip and transfer!)

Swap in chicken for pork.

Heat a ½-inch layer of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Once oil is hot enough that a pinch of flour sizzles when added to the pan, add coated pork (for 4 servings, cook in batches, adding more oil between batches if necessary). Cook until golden brown and cooked through, 3–5 minutes per side. (If pork begins to brown too quickly, lower that heat!) Transfer to a paper-towel-lined plate.

5.

Melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a medium pan over medium heat. Add peas; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until warmed through, 2–3 minutes. Transfer to a small bowl and cover to keep warm. In same pan, melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4) over medium-low heat. Add 1 TBSP flour (2 TBSP for 4); cook, stirring frequently, until lightly browned, 1–2 minutes. Slowly stir in stock concentrates and ¾ cup water (1½ cups for 4). Simmer until thickened, 2–4 minutes. Turn off heat.

6.

Divide pork, mashed potatoes, and peas between plates in separate sections. Spoon gravy over pork and mashed potatoes.
