MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Preheat oven to 450 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Trim and snap green beans into 1-inch pieces. Pick cilantro leaves from stems.

2.

In a medium bowl, combine soy sauce, peanut butter, sweet Thai heat sauce, sesame oil, stock concentrate, and half the sesame seeds. Season with salt and pepper. Open package of chicken and drain off any excess liquid. Add chicken and green beans to bowl with sauce and toss until well combined.

3.

Transfer chicken and green bean mixture to oven-ready tray and cover tightly with foil. Place tray on a baking sheet and bake, 20–25 minutes (be sure your oven has preheated!).

4.

Carefully remove foil from tray; top with peanuts and remaining sesame seeds. Return to oven and bake, uncovered, until chicken is cooked through and peanuts and sesame seeds are toasted, 8 minutes more. Massage rice in package to break up grains; partially open package and add 1 TBSP butter (1 TBSP butter per package for 4 servings). Microwave for 90 seconds.

5.

Divide rice between bowls; top with chicken and green beans, cilantro, wonton strips, and as much Sriracha as you like.

Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.*
