Want to add a little je ne sais quoi to this dish? Toast those sesame seeds before adding them to your sauce mixture! This simple step brings out their natural oils and nuttiness—yum. Just heat them in a large dry pan over medium-high heat and toast, stirring often, until golden brown, 2–3 minutes.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Bring a large pot of lightly salted water to a boil. Wash and dry produce. Trim and remove strings from snap peas by snapping off the stem end with your fingers and gently pulling (like you would a zipper).

2.

Once water is boiling, add noodles to pot. Cook, stirring occasionally, until tender, 6–8 minutes, then drain.

3.

Meanwhile, open package of chicken and drain off any excess liquid. Heat a large drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add chicken; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until nearly cooked through, 2–3 minutes.

4.

Add snap peas to pan with chicken; continue to cook, stirring occasionally, until chicken is browned and cooked through and snap peas are tender, 2–3 minutes more. Meanwhile, in a small bowl, combine dressing, stock concentrates, garlic powder, chili flakes, and sesame seeds.

5.

Add drained noodles and sesame sauce mixture to pan with chicken and snap peas; toss until evenly coated. Taste and season with salt and pepper. Stir in 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) until melted.

6.

Divide stir-fry between bowls.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
