Want to put your own spin on this chili? If you've got some on hand, sprinkle your finished bowls with chopped cilantro, shredded cheese, hot sauce, or crumbled tortilla chips (or all of the above—we support you!).

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to middle position and preheat oven to 375 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Halve, peel, and finely dice onion. Peel and finely chop garlic. Core, deseed, and dice green pepper into ½-inch pieces. Dice tomato into ½-inch pieces. Slice half the gouda (all for 4 servings) into ½-inch-thick strips. Open black beans; reserve four beans (eight beans for 4) to decorate witch hats in Step 5.

2.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a medium pot (large pot for 4 servings) over medium-high heat. Add onion and cook, stirring occasionally, until beginning to soften, 1–2 minutes. Add beef and cook, breaking up meat into pieces, until browned, 3–4 minutes (it'll finish cooking in the next step). Add garlic, green pepper, tomato, and Southwest Spice Blend; stir to combine. Add Tex-Mex paste and cook, stirring occasionally, until everything is coated and mixture is slightly darkened, 1–2 minutes.

3.

Add stock concentrates, remaining black beans and their liquid, and ¼ cup water (½ cup for 4 servings); stir to combine. Bring to a simmer and cook, stirring occasionally, until veggies are softened, mixture has thickened, and beef is cooked through, 12–15 minutes. (If mixture seems too thick, add a splash of water.)

4.

While chili cooks, line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Unroll crescent rolls and separate into triangles; arrange on prepared sheet. Working one at a time, fold up ½ inch of triangle bottoms (the widest part) to create hat brims. Pinch and bend pointed tops of triangles over to one side to create a slouch (just like a witch's hat!). Bake witch hats on middle rack until puffed and cooked through, 11–13 minutes.

5.

Remove baking sheet from oven. Carefully arrange gouda strips just above hat brims to create ribbons. Place one reserved bean in center of each gouda strip. Return sheet to middle rack and bake until cheese just melts, 30–60 seconds.

6.

Taste chili and season with salt and pepper if desired. Divide chili between “cauldrons” (aka your favorite spooky bowls!) and dollop with sour cream. Serve with witch hat crescent rolls on the side.

*Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.
