MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to top position and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Dice potatoes into ½-inch pieces. Trim and thinly slice scallions, separating whites from greens. Drain sauerkraut.

2.

Toss potatoes on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, garlic powder, salt, and pepper. Roast on top rack until browned and tender, 20–25 minutes.

3.

While potatoes roast, pat chicken dry with paper towels; season all over with salt and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium–high heat. Add chicken; cook until browned and cooked through, 6–8 minutes per side. (Lower heat if chicken begins to brown too quickly.) Turn off heat; transfer to a cutting board to rest and tent with foil to keep warm. Wipe out pan.

4.

Melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in pan used for chicken over medium heat. Add scallion whites; cook, stirring, until fragrant, 30–60 seconds. Whisk in ½ TBSP flour (1 TBSP for 4) until well combined. Stir in stock concentrate and ½ cup milk (1 cup for 4). Bring to a simmer; cook until sauce has thickened, 30–60 seconds more. Turn off heat; stir in sauerkraut, mustard, and sour cream until combined. Taste and season with salt and pepper.

5.

Thinly slice chicken crosswise. Spread Dijon sauerkraut sauce on one side of each plate, then top with chicken. Place roasted potatoes on empty side of plate and sprinkle everything with scallion greens.

Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.*
