When forming your patties in Step 4, be gentle and try not to overwork the meat. Using a light touch when flattening and shaping will make for juicy, tender results!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to top position and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch-thick wedges. Thinly slice jalapeño into rounds, removing ribs and seeds for less heat.

2.

Toss potatoes on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, garlic powder, salt, and pepper. Roast on top rack until browned and tender, 20–25 minutes.

3.

While potatoes roast, in a small microwave-safe bowl, combine jalapeño, vinegar, 2 TBSP water, 1 tsp sugar, and a pinch of salt (4 TBSP water and 2 tsp sugar for 4 servings). Cover with plastic wrap and microwave until jalapeño is dark green, 60–90 seconds.

4.

Form beef into two ½-inch-thick patties (four patties for 4 servings), each slightly wider than a burger bun. Season all over with salt and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add patties and cook to desired doneness, 3–5 minutes per side.

5.

While patties cook, halve and toast buns. Divide buns and oven fries between plates. Spread cut sides of buns with as much creamy ranchero sauce as you like. Fill with patties and as much pickled jalapeño (draining first) as you like.

*Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.
