If you look closely, you'll see that your steak naturally has lines running through it. In order to ensure maximum tenderness, we want you to slice perpendicular to those lines, aka against the grain (as you'll do in Step 6). It'll make the end result 10 bajillion times better (scientific fact).

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Preheat oven to 425 degrees. Place 2 TBSP butter (4 TBSP for 4 servings) in a small microwave-safe bowl; set aside to soften. Wash and dry produce. Peel and dice sweet potatoes into ½-inch pieces. Trim and halve Brussels sprouts lengthwise. Strip rosemary leaves from stems and finely chop until you have 1 tsp (2 tsp for 4). (Save remaining rosemary for another use.)

3.

While sweet potatoes cook, in a large bowl, toss together Brussels sprouts, honey, a drizzle of olive oil, a pinch of chili flakes from your pantry (leave the chili flakes out if you don't like things spicy!), salt, and pepper. Arrange, cut sides down, on a baking sheet. Peel garlic; place cloves in the center of a small piece of foil. Drizzle with olive oil and season with salt and pepper. Cinch into a packet. Place garlic foil packet on sheet with Brussels sprouts. Roast on top rack until everything is browned and tender, 15–20 minutes. Once garlic is done roasting, carefully transfer to a cutting board; set aside.

5.

Melt 2 TBSP butter (4 TBSP for 4 servings) in pot used for sweet potatoes over medium heat. Cook, stirring, until butter is foamy and flecked with amber brown bits, 1–2 minutes. (Take a whiff—it should smell deliciously nutty!) Return drained sweet potatoes to pot and mash with ¼ cup milk (½ cup for 4) until smooth and creamy. Season with salt and pepper.

2.

Place sweet potatoes in a medium pot with enough salted water to cover by 2 inches. Bring to a boil and cook until tender, 12–15 minutes. Drain and set aside. (Keep empty pot handy for Step 5.)

4.

Meanwhile, heat a large dry pan over medium-high heat. Add pecans, 3 TBSP water, 2 tsp sugar, and a pinch of salt (4 TBSP water and 4 tsp sugar for 4 servings). Cook, stirring, until water has evaporated and pecans are lightly toasted, 3–5 minutes. Transfer to a plate and wipe out pan. Pat steak dry with paper towels and season generously with salt and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in pan used for pecans over medium-high heat. Add steak and cook to desired doneness, 3–5 minutes per side. Turn off heat; transfer to a cutting board to rest.

6.

Using a fork, mash roasted garlic until smooth. To bowl with softened butter (if butter is not yet softened, microwave 5–10 seconds until softened but not melted), add roasted garlic (make sure it's cooled before adding so that the butter doesn't melt!), rosemary, salt, and pepper. Slice steak against the grain. Divide steak, Brussels sprouts, and mashed sweet potatoes between plates. Top mashed sweet potatoes with candied pecans and dollop steak with roasted garlic-rosemary butter.

Beef is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145°.*
