How do you know if your pasta water is salty enough? Taste it! (We're serious.) Because your cooking water is the only chance you have to season the pasta itself, it's super important to treat it like you would any other ingredient. The water should taste about as salty as the ocean!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to top position and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Place 2 TBSP butter (4 TBSP for 4 servings) in a small bowl to soften. Wash and dry produce. Halve, peel, and dice onion. Halve ciabatta. Pick parsley leaves from stems; roughly chop leaves. Grate Parmesan over a separate small bowl (skip this step if pre-shredded). Zest and quarter lemon.

2.

Once water is boiling, add pasta to pot. Cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente, 9–11 minutes. Reserve 1 cup pasta cooking water (2 cups for 4 servings), then drain.

3.

While pasta cooks, pat chicken dry with paper towels; season all over with salt and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add chicken and cook until browned and cooked through, 5–6 minutes per side. Turn off heat; transfer chicken to a cutting board. Wipe out pan.

4.

Heat a drizzle of oil in pan used for chicken over medium heat. Add onion and a pinch of salt and pepper; cook, stirring occasionally, until softened and lightly browned, 4–7 minutes. Stir in crushed tomatoes, stock concentrates, 1 tsp sugar (2 tsp for 4 servings), salt, and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until sauce has thickened, 3–5 minutes more. Remove from heat.

5.

To bowl with softened butter, add half the garlic powder and half the Italian Seasoning (all the garlic powder and all the Italian Seasoning for 4 servings). Season with salt and pepper; stir to combine. Spread garlic butter onto cut sides of ciabatta; place, cut sides up, on a baking sheet. To pan with sauce, add drained pasta, half the parsley, half the Parmesan, a squeeze of lemon juice, and as much lemon zest as you like. Stir in splashes of reserved pasta cooking water as needed until everything is coated in sauce.

6.

Bake garlic bread on top rack until golden brown, 3–5 minutes. Transfer to a cutting board and halve on a diagonal. Thinly slice chicken crosswise. Divide pasta between bowls and top with chicken. Garnish with remaining parsley and remaining Parmesan. Serve with garlic bread and remaining lemon wedges on the side.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
