Want to nail the perfect pot of rice? Once your water boils in Step 2, immediately cover the pot with a tight-fitting lid and reduce the heat to the lowest setting. Let it simmer until no water remains (resisting the urge to peek!). Finally, let the pot sit off heat for a few minutes while you cook the rest of the meal. This crucial step allows the moisture to redistribute, giving you tender, fluffy grains every time.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Preheat oven to 450 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop garlic. Peel and finely chop ginger until you have 1 TBSP (2 TBSP for 4 servings). Trim green beans if necessary. Quarter lime.

2.

Melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a small pot over medium-high heat. Add garlic and chopped ginger; cook until fragrant, 1 minute. Add rice and stir to coat. Stir in 1¼ cups water (2¼ cups for 4) and a big pinch of salt. Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce to a low simmer. Cook until rice is tender, 15–20 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

3.

Meanwhile, in a small bowl, combine sweet soy glaze with a squeeze of lime juice to taste. Pat salmon dry with paper towels and season with salt and pepper. Drizzle with oil and rub to coat all over.

4.

Toss green beans on one side of a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, half the sesame seeds (save the rest for serving), salt, and pepper. Add a drizzle of oil to empty side of sheet, then add salmon, skin sides down. (For 4 servings, spread veggies out across entire sheet and use a second sheet for salmon.) Roast until salmon is cooked through and green beans are browned and tender, 10–12 minutes. In the last 2–3 minutes of roasting, carefully spoon half the glaze over salmon (save the rest for serving). Return to oven until glaze is slightly tacky.

5.

Fluff rice with a fork; season with salt and pepper. Divide rice, salmon, and green beans between plates. Drizzle salmon with remaining glaze and sprinkle with as many remaining sesame seeds as you like. Serve with remaining lime wedges on the side.

*Fish is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145°.
