We love jalapeño for its fresh kick. If you're looking for a milder spice level, however, make sure to remove the ribs and seeds after slicing in Step 3 (that's where most of the heat lives!).

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop garlic. Drain and rinse beans. Cut tomato into a small dice. Quarter lime.

➡ Open package of chicken and drain off any excess liquid. Heat a drizzle of oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. Add chicken or beef and season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring frequently, until browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes. Turn off heat; transfer to a plate. Wipe out pan.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a medium pan (large pan for 4 servings) over medium heat. Add garlic and half the tomato paste (all for 4); cook, stirring frequently, until fragrant, 30 seconds. Add beans, rice, Mexican Spice Blend, stock concentrate, half the diced tomato, 1½ cups water (3 cups for 4), and ¾ tsp salt (1½ tsp for 4). Stir to combine. Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce to a low simmer. Cook until rice is tender, 15–18 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

➡ Use pan used for chicken or beef here.

3.

While rice cooks, thinly slice jalapeño into rounds, removing ribs and seeds for less heat. In a small microwave-safe bowl, combine jalapeño, ¼ tsp sugar, 1 tsp water, juice from half the lime, and a pinch of salt. Stir until sugar and salt have mostly dissolved. Cover with plastic wrap and microwave until dark green, 30 seconds. Carefully uncover; set aside, stirring occasionally, until ready to serve.

4.

Place queso blanco in a medium microwave-safe bowl. Whisk in 2 TBSP water (4 TBSP for 4 servings). Cover with plastic wrap and microwave until warmed through, 15–20 seconds. Carefully uncover bowl; set aside until ready to serve.

5.

Once ready to serve, fluff rice and beans with a fork. Evenly sprinkle with Monterey Jack. Cover pan until cheese melts, 1–2 minutes.

➡ Stir chicken or beef into rice and beans, then top with Monterey Jack as instructed.

6.

Drizzle rice and beans with queso blanco. Garnish with remaining diced tomato, crispy fried onions, and as much pickled jalapeño as you like (draining first). Serve with remaining lime wedges on the side.

*Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.
