Want to nail the perfect pot of rice? Once the water boils, immediately cover the pot with a tight-fitting lid and reduce the heat. Simmer until no water remains (resisting the urge to peek too often!). Finally, let the pot sit off heat while you finish cooking. This allows the moisture to redistribute, giving you tender, fluffy grains.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

In a small pot, combine rice, 1¼ cups water (2¼ cups for 4 servings), and a pinch of salt. Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce heat to low. Cook until tender, 15–20 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

2.

While rice cooks, wash and dry produce. Trim and thinly slice scallions, separating whites from greens. Core, deseed, and dice bell pepper into 1-inch pieces.

3.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add scallion whites and bell pepper; cook, stirring occasionally, until beginning to soften, 1–2 minutes. Add pork; season lightly with salt and pepper. Cook, breaking up meat into pieces, until browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes.

Open package of chicken and drain off any excess liquid. Swap in chicken (no need to break up into pieces!) or beef for pork.

4.

Add roasted onion and garlic spread and sweet soy glaze to pan with pork mixture. Cook, stirring, until pork is coated and mixture begins to caramelize, 1–2 minutes.

5.

Fluff rice with a fork; divide between bowls. Top with stir-fry; sprinkle with scallion greens.
