MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to top position and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Trim and slice zucchini into ½-inch-thick rounds. Zest and quarter lime. Trim and thinly slice scallions. Toss zucchini on a baking sheet with a drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. Roast on top rack until browned and tender, 15–18 minutes.

3.

In a small bowl, combine soy sauce, remaining katsu sauce, 1 TBSP ketchup (2 TBSP for 4 servings), salt, and a big pinch of pepper. Set soy-katsu sauce aside.

2.

While pork roasts, in a medium bowl, whisk together juice from half the lime, 2 TBSP mayonnaise, 2 tsp katsu sauce, 1 tsp sugar, a drizzle of olive oil, and a pinch of lime zest (4 TBSP mayonnaise, 4 tsp katsu sauce, and 2 tsp sugar for 4 servings). Taste and season with salt and pepper. Add coleslaw mix and scallions; toss to combine.

4.

Place ¼ cup flour (½ cup for 4 servings) in a shallow dish. Crack one egg into a separate shallow dish; beat with 2 TBSP water (two eggs and 4 TBSP water for 4). Place panko in a third shallow dish. Season all three dishes generously with salt and pepper. Pat pork dry with paper towels. Place between two large pieces of plastic wrap; pound with a mallet or heavy-bottomed pan until pork is about ½ inch thick. Season all over with salt and pepper. Working one piece at a time, press pork into seasoned flour until fully coated. Gently shake off excess, then dip both sides into beaten egg. Let excess egg drip off, then press into seasoned panko until fully coated. (For less mess, use tongs to dip and transfer!)

↔ Swap in chicken for pork.

Heat a ¼-inch layer of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Once oil is hot enough that a pinch of panko sizzles when added to the pan, add coated pork. Cook until golden brown and cooked through, 3–4 minutes per side. (For 4 servings, cook in batches, adding more oil between batches.) Transfer to a paper-towel-lined plate and season with salt and pepper.

↔ Cook coated chicken until golden brown and cooked through, 4–5 minutes per side.

Divide pork, zucchini, and lime slaw between plates. Top pork with as much soy-katsu sauce as you like. Serve with any remaining soy-katsu sauce for dipping and remaining lime wedges on the side.

*Pork is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145°.

*Wash hands and surfaces after handling raw eggs. Consuming raw or undercooked eggs may increase your risk of foodborne illness.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
