MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Bring a small pot of water to a boil. Wash and dry produce. Zest and quarter lime. Halve, peel, and thinly slice onion. Trim and discard root end from lettuce; chop leaves into bite-size pieces. Dice tomato into ½-inch pieces.

2.

Add bacon in a single layer to a medium dry pan (use a large pan for 4 servings); heat over medium-high heat. Cook, turning occasionally, until crispy, 6–10 minutes. Turn off heat; transfer to a paper-towel-lined plate, reserving bacon fat in pan. Once bacon is cool enough to handle, roughly chop.

3.

Once water is boiling, add two eggs (four eggs for 4 servings) to pot and reduce to a low simmer. Cook for 11 minutes (set that timer!), then drain and run under cold water until eggs are cool enough to handle. Peel and rinse to remove any bits of shell. Quarter eggs lengthwise; season with salt and pepper.

4.

Meanwhile, in a small bowl, combine sour cream, ½ tsp Tex-Mex paste (1 tsp for 4 servings), a squeeze of lime juice, and a pinch of lime zest. Add water 1 tsp at a time until mixture reaches a drizzling consistency. In a separate small microwave-safe bowl, combine half the onion, 2 TBSP water, 1 tsp sugar, juice from remaining lime wedges, and a pinch of salt (4 TBSP water and 2 tsp sugar for 4). Cover tightly with plastic wrap and microwave until bright pink, 30–60 seconds. Uncover and set aside to pickle, stirring occasionally.

5.

Pat chicken dry with paper towels and rub all over with remaining Tex-Mex paste. Heat pan with reserved bacon fat over medium heat. (Add a drizzle of oil if pan seems dry.) Add chicken to pan and cook until browned and cooked through, 5–6 minutes per side. (Lower heat if chicken begins to brown too quickly.) Transfer chicken to a cutting board; let rest at least 3 minutes.

6.

Thinly slice chicken crosswise. In a large bowl, toss lettuce with half the Tex-Mex dressing. Divide lettuce between serving bowls. Top in separate sections with tomato, chicken, bacon, eggs, as much sliced onion as you like, and as much pickled onion (draining first) as you like. Drizzle with remaining Tex-Mex dressing.

*Pork is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145°.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.

*Wash hands and surfaces after handling raw eggs. Consuming raw or undercooked eggs may increase your risk of foodborne illness.
