You might be wondering why we have you put your oven-ready trays on a baking sheet in Step 3. Good question! The baking sheet is there to catch anything that bubbles over from your tray while it cooks—plus, it makes moving the tray to and from the oven a breeze!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to middle position (middle and top positions for 4) and preheat oven to 450 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Pinch ends off green beans if necessary; snap in half. Grate Parmesan over a small bowl (skip this step if pre-shredded). In a second small bowl, combine half the sour cream and half the dressing. Set aside.

2.

In one oven-ready tray, combine green beans, garlic powder, half the paprika, half the Italian Seasoning, remaining dressing, ¼ cup water, a drizzle of oil, salt, and pepper. (For 4, divide between two trays; use ¼ cup water and a drizzle of oil for each tray.) Pat chicken dry; season with remaining paprika, remaining Italian Seasoning, salt, and pepper. Place in second tray; brush with remaining sour cream (for 4, divide between two trays).

3.

Place trays side by side on a baking sheet. Bake on middle rack (be sure your oven has preheated!) for 15 minutes. Evenly sprinkle Parmesan over chicken. Return to middle rack and bake until cheese is melted and browned and chicken is cooked through, 7–9 minutes more. (For 4, bake chicken on middle rack and green beans on top rack.)

4.

Drizzle chicken with creamy Italian sauce. Divide chicken and green beans between plates or serve family style directly from trays.
