Be sure to give your coconut milk a good shake before opening the container and adding to the pot in Step 3. The cream may have risen to the top and solidified a bit, but not to worry—the liquids and solids will quickly come together and turn silky-smooth during cooking!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Place rice in a fine-mesh sieve and rinse until water runs clear. In a small pot, combine ½ cup rice (be sure to measure—we sent more), ¾ cup water, 1 TBSP butter, and a big pinch of salt. (For 4 servings, use 1 cup rice, 1 ¼ cups water, and 2 TBSP butter.) Bring to a boil, then cover and reduce heat to a low simmer. Cook until rice is tender, 15 minutes. Keep covered off heat for at least 10 minutes or until ready to serve.

2.

Meanwhile, peel and finely chop half the ginger (all for 4 servings). Peel and finely chop garlic. Peel and dice sweet potato into ½-inch pieces. Trim and thinly slice scallions, separating whites from greens.

Open package of chicken and drain off any excess liquid. Add chicken to a large pot and season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes. Transfer to a plate.

3.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pot over medium-high heat. Add curry powder; cook, stirring frequently, 30 seconds. Add another drizzle of oil, chopped ginger, garlic, sweet potato, and scallion whites; cook, stirring, until fragrant, 30–60 seconds. Stir in 2 cups water (4 cups for 4 servings), stock concentrates, coconut milk, and soy sauce. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium. Simmer until sweet potato is tender and liquid has slightly reduced, 13–15 minutes.

Use pot used for chicken here.

While soup simmers, trim and remove strings from snow peas by snapping off the stem end with your fingers and gently pulling (like you would a zipper); thinly slice crosswise. Quarter lime. Once sweet potato is tender and liquid has slightly reduced, add snow peas; cook until softened but still slightly crunchy, 3–4 minutes. Squeeze juice from half the lime (whole lime for 4 servings) over soup. Taste and season generously with salt (we used ½ tsp).

Once snow peas are cooked, stir chicken into soup.

Divide rice between bowls. Serve soup over top. Sprinkle with scallion greens.
