GHIA

Ghia is a spirits-free aperitif adapted for modern times. Made only with pure and potent botanicals, Ghia was created to be sipped, savored, and shared from sunset to sunrise.

If you have a fish spatula, whip it out to transfer the salmon to the plate in Step 3. This super-spatch (now that's a comic book series we'd love to see) has a thin, flexible edge and enough heft to balance delicate items with ease. Psst—if you don't have one, simply grab your largest spatula!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Place 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a small microwave-safe bowl; bring to room temperature. Wash and dry produce. Halve, peel, and finely dice half the shallot; thinly slice remaining. Trim green beans if necessary. Zest and halve lemon; squeeze juice into a separate small bowl until you have 1½ tsp (3 tsp for 4). Cut remaining lemon into wedges. Cut 2 TBSP butter (4 TBSP for 4) into ½-inch cubes. Peel and finely chop garlic.

3.

Meanwhile, heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Pat salmon dry with paper towels and season all over with salt and pepper. Add to pan, skin sides down. Cook until skin is crisp and fish is almost cooked through, 5–7 minutes. Flip and cook until cooked through, 1–2 minutes more. Turn off heat; transfer to a plate and tent with foil to keep warm. Wipe out pan.

5.

Heat 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in pan used for salmon over medium heat. Add diced shallot; cook, stirring, until fragrant and translucent, 1–2 minutes. Stir in lemon juice and ¼ cup water (½ cup for 4); season with salt and pepper. Cook until reduced by about half, 1–2 minutes more. Remove from heat. Stir in cream cheese and cubed butter until melted and combined. Stir in a pinch of lemon zest.

2.

Place sliced shallot in a small pot. Add a ⅓-inch layer of oil and heat over medium-high heat. Cook, stirring frequently, until golden brown and crispy, 8–10 minutes. (If shallot begins to brown too quickly, lower that heat!) Using a slotted spoon, transfer shallot to a paper-towel-lined plate.

4.

While salmon cooks, place green beans in a large, microwave-safe bowl with a splash of water. Cover bowl tightly with plastic wrap and poke a few holes in wrap. Microwave until bright green and tender, 2–3 minutes. Drain and return green beans to bowl; toss with ½ TBSP butter (1 TBSP for 4 servings), salt, and pepper.

6.

Add a pinch of garlic to bowl with softened butter (if butter is not yet softened, microwave for 5–10 seconds). Season with salt and pepper; stir to combine. Halve and toast ciabatta. Spread cut sides with garlic butter and cut each half on a diagonal. Divide salmon, green beans, and garlic bread between plates. Top green beans with crispy shallots. Spoon sauce over salmon and sprinkle with a pinch of lemon zest. Serve with any remaining lemon wedges on the side. Pair with a Ghia Blood Orange Spritz. Sip and enjoy!

*Fish is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145°.
