Charring ingredients both brings out their natural sweetness and introduces serious depth of flavor. In the case of our corn, we're looking for the kernels to become dark brown on the outside (while still soft on the inside). Don't fret if the kernels pop—it just means the heat's doing its job!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Preheat oven to 450 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Cut tomato into a small dice. Halve, peel, and finely chop onion. Quarter lime. Thinly slice half the jalapeño into rounds; finely chop remaining jalapeño. (Remove ribs and seeds for less heat.) Drain and rinse corn, then pat very dry with paper towels.

2.

In a small bowl, combine tomato, 1 TBSP onion (2 TBSP for 4 servings), a squeeze of lime juice, and as much chopped jalapeño as you like. Season with salt and pepper. In a separate small microwave-safe bowl, combine sliced jalapeño, juice from half the lime, 1 tsp sugar (2 tsp for 4), 1 TBSP water (2 TBSP for 4), and a pinch of salt. Microwave for 30 seconds; stir and set aside.

Open package of chicken and drain off any excess liquid. Heat a large drizzle of oil in a medium pot over medium-high heat. Add chicken or beef; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes. Turn off heat; transfer to a plate. Wipe out pot.

Heat a drizzle of oil in a medium pot over medium-high heat. Add half the remaining onion; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until softened, 3–4 minutes. Add beans and their liquid and half the chili powder (you'll use the rest later). Reduce heat to medium. Simmer, stirring occasionally, until mixture has thickened, 6–8 minutes. Turn off heat; mash until smooth. Taste and season with salt and pepper.

Use pot used for chicken or beef here.

Spread one side of each tortilla with an even layer of beans. Place on a baking sheet; sprinkle with cheese. Bake until cheese just melts, 2–3 minutes. (Watch carefully—the tortillas should be warm and pliable, not crisp.) Divide tortillas between plates; fill with corn mixture, salsa, remaining sour cream, and pickled jalapeño to taste. Halve remaining lime wedge; serve on the side.

Top beans with chicken or beef; cook through the rest of this step as instructed.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
*Ground Meat is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.

4.

Meanwhile, melt 1 TBSP butter (2 TBSP for 4 servings) in a large pan over high heat. Add corn and season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until charred, 4–5 minutes. (Cover pan if corn begins to pop!) Turn off heat; stir in pickling liquid from sliced jalapeño, half the sour cream (save the rest for serving), remaining chili powder, and as much remaining onion as you like. Season with salt and pepper.
