MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 12 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 12-person meals, triple the amounts in the 4-serving recipe.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Halve, peel, and dice onion into ½-inch pieces. Halve, deseed, and dice green pepper into ½-inch pieces. Peel and finely chop garlic. Zest and halve lime. Roughly chop cilantro, including tender stems.

2.

Heat a large drizzle of oil in a large pot over medium-high heat. Add onion, green pepper, and garlic. Cook, stirring occasionally, until softened, 2–3 minutes. Add Southwest Spice Blend and chipotle powder; stir until evenly coated, about 1 minute. (Use less chipotle powder or leave out if you don't like things spicy.)

3.

Pat chicken dry with paper towels and season all over with salt. Add chicken, beans and their liquid, stock concentrates, and 2 cups water (3½ cups for 8 servings) to pot with veggie mixture. Bring to a simmer, then reduce heat to medium low (mixture should be gently bubbling). Cook, stirring occasionally, until chicken pulls apart easily with a fork, 15–20 minutes.

4.

Once chicken is done, transfer to a cutting board. Using two forks, shred chicken. Return chicken to pot with soup along with lime zest, three-quarters of the cilantro, and juice from lime; stir to combine. Taste and season with salt if desired.

5.

Divide soup between bowls. Dollop with sour cream and top with remaining cilantro.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
