If you have a few extra minutes, toast those sesame seeds! This simple step brings out their naturally nutty flavor and crisp texture. Add them to a large dry pan over medium-high heat and cook, stirring often, until golden brown and fragrant, 2–3 minutes. Transfer to a small bowl until ready to use in Step 5.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. In a small bowl, combine 2 TBSP mayonnaise (4 TBSP for 4 servings) with as much Sriracha as you like. Add water ½ tsp at a time until mixture reaches a drizzling consistency.

2.

Pat chicken dry with paper towels and season with salt and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add chicken and cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and cooked through, 4–6 minutes.

3.

Meanwhile, massage rice package to break up grains; snip to partially open and add 1 TBSP butter (for 4 servings, use 1 TBSP butter per package). Microwave for 90 seconds.

4.

Add coleslaw mix to pan with chicken and cook, stirring, until just softened, about 1 minute. Stir in Thai heat sauce until evenly coated.

5.

Fluff rice with a fork; divide between bowls (for 4 servings, transfer rice to a medium bowl for easier fluffing!). Top rice with chicken stir-fry. Drizzle with Sriracha mayo and sprinkle with sesame seeds.

*Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.
