$20

Give it a rest—the cooked chicken, that is! When you let your chicken stand after cooking (as you will in Step 4), all its juicy goodness will distribute evenly. The reward? Extra-juicy chicken.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Adjust rack to middle position (top and middle positions for 4 servings) and preheat oven to 425 degrees. Wash and dry produce. Halve, peel, and cut onion into ½-inch-thick wedges. Cut tomato into ½-inch-thick wedges. Trim and halve zucchini lengthwise; slice crosswise into ½-inch-thick half-moons.

2.

In a large bowl, combine onion, tomato, zucchini, stock concentrate, a drizzle of oil, and a small pinch of salt and pepper. Transfer to a baking sheet; roast on middle rack until browned and tender, 18–20 minutes. (For 4 servings, divide veggies between two sheets; roast on top and middle racks, swapping positions halfway through.)

3.

Meanwhile, pat chicken dry with paper towels. Season all over with BBQ Seasoning, salt, and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add chicken and cook until browned and cooked through, 5–6 minutes per side. Transfer to a cutting board.

4.

Once cool enough to handle, thinly slice chicken crosswise.

5.

Divide chicken and roasted veggies between plates. Drizzle chicken with red pepper crema.

Poultry is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 165°.*
