Fresh pasta cooks faster than dried pasta, so be sure to keep an eye on the fettuccine once you add it to the boiling water in Step 3. In just 3–5 minutes, you'll have perfectly al dente (Italian for “to the tooth”) noodles. What's the best way to make sure they're perfectly cooked? Bite into one!

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Wash and dry produce. Peel and finely chop garlic. Trim and thinly slice scallions, separating whites from greens. Grate Parmesan over a small bowl (skip this step if pre-shredded).

2.

Add bacon to a large dry pan in a single layer; heat over medium-high heat. Cook, turning occasionally, until crispy, 6–10 minutes. Turn off heat; transfer bacon to a paper-towel-lined plate. Wipe out pan. Once bacon is cool enough to handle, roughly chop.

3.

Once water is boiling, add pasta to pot. (If pasta is stuck together, gently separate with your hands before adding to pot.) Cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente, 3–5 minutes. Reserve ½ cup pasta cooking water (1 cup for 4 servings), then drain.

4.

While pasta cooks, pat chicken dry with paper towels and dice into 1-inch pieces; season all over with salt and pepper. Heat a drizzle of oil in pan used for bacon over medium-high heat. Add chicken and cook, stirring occasionally, until browned, 4–5 minutes. Stir in garlic and scallion whites; cook, stirring, until chicken is cooked through and garlic is fragrant, 30–60 seconds more.

5.

Reduce heat to medium low. Add paprika, 1 TBSP butter, and 2 tsp flour to pan (2 TBSP butter and 4 tsp flour for 4 servings); cook, stirring, until butter has melted and chicken is evenly coated, 1–2 minutes. Stir in stock concentrate, cream cheese, ¾ cup milk (1½ cups for 4), salt, and pepper. Cook, stirring, until sauce has thickened slightly, 1–2 minutes. Add Parmesan and cook, stirring, until melted and combined, 1 minute more.

Add drained pasta to pan with sauce; stir until pasta is thoroughly coated. (If sauce seems too thick, add splashes of reserved pasta cooking water.) Divide pasta between bowls; top with bacon and scallion greens.
