$20

Ready for your 20-second lesson on flipping a fully loaded panini? First, use your largest nonstick pan (more surface area = more room to land). Once the first side is golden brown, slide the spatula underneath the sandwich while securing the top with your hand, then flip in one fell swoop. This'll keep all the goodness nestled inside where it belongs.

MORE IS MORE

If you upgraded your meal to double your protein or veggies and/or ordered 6 servings, you may need to cook in batches or larger cooking vessels. Remember: Larger batches may = longer cook times, so follow the visual and temperature cues. (For 6-person meals, combine the 2- and 4-serving ingredient amounts as needed.) For CustomPlate nutritional information, please refer to EveryPlate.com.

1.

Wash and dry produce. Trim and halve zucchini lengthwise, then halve crosswise; slice each piece into spears (like fries—we got four spears per piece). Place on a paper towel. Thinly slice tomato into rounds. Finely chop Parmesan. Halve ciabattas. Thinly slice mozzarella into rounds.

3.

Place $\frac{1}{4}$ cup flour ($\frac{1}{2}$ cup for 4 servings) in a wide, shallow dish; season with salt. Place one egg, 2 TBSP water, and a pinch of salt in a second wide, shallow dish (two eggs and 4 TBSP water for 4); whisk until smooth. In a third wide, shallow dish, add panko, Parmesan, remaining garlic powder, and a $\frac{1}{4}$ cup flour ($\frac{1}{2}$ cup for 4); season with salt, then stir to combine. Working a few pieces at a time, press zucchini into seasoned flour in first dish until fully coated. Shake off excess, then dip into beaten egg in second dish, turning to coat. Let excess egg drip off, then press into seasoned panko in third dish until fully coated. (For less mess, use tongs to dip and transfer!) Set aside.

5.

Heat a $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch layer of oil in pan used for panini over medium-high heat. Once oil is hot enough that a pinch of panko mixture sizzles when added to pan, add coated zucchini in a single layer, leaving some space between pieces and working in batches if necessary. Cook, turning occasionally, until zucchini is tender and panko is golden brown, 6–8 minutes. Transfer to a paper-towel-lined plate; season immediately with salt.

*Wash hands and surfaces after handling raw eggs. Consuming raw or undercooked eggs may increase your risk of foodborne illness.
*Pork is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 145°.

In a small bowl, combine pesto, half the garlic powder, and 4 TBSP mayonnaise (8 TBSP for 4 servings). Place tomato in a separate small bowl with vinegar, a drizzle of olive oil, and a pinch of salt and pepper. Set aside, turning occasionally, until ready to use.

↔ Add bacon to a large dry pan in a single layer; heat over medium-high heat. Cook, turning occasionally, until crispy, 6–10 minutes. Turn off heat; transfer bacon to a paper-towel-lined plate. Wipe out pan.

Spread cut sides of ciabattas with pesto aioli (save the rest for serving). Fill ciabattas with mozzarella and as many balsamic tomato slices as you like (draining first). Heat a drizzle of olive oil in a large pan over medium heat; add sandwiches and press down with a spatula or heavy-bottomed pan (for 4 servings, you may need to work in batches). Cook, pressing occasionally, until bread is toasted and mozzarella melts, 2–4 minutes per side. (If pan seems dry when flipping, add another drizzle of olive oil.) Transfer to a cutting board. Wipe out pan.

↔ Fill with bacon along with mozzarella. Use pan used for bacon here.

Halve each panini on a diagonal, then divide between plates. Divide zucchini fries between plates and serve with remaining pesto aioli on the side for dipping.
